THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHANDRA SEKHAR SAHU): (a) and (b) Yes, Sir. The primary responsibility of providing drinking water facilities in the country rests with State Governments. Government of India supplements the efforts of State Governments by providing financial assistance under the Centrally Sponsored Scheme of Accelerated Rural Water Supply Programme (ARWSP). ARWSP has been under implementation since 1972-73. In 1986, the National Drinking Water Mission, renamed as Rajiv Gandhi National Drinking Water Mission in 1991, was launched and further in 1999, the Department of Drinking Water Supply was created, to provide a renewed focus with mission approach to implement programmes for rural drinking water supply.

Funds under ARWSP are released on the basis of inter-State allocation criterion. Hence project-wise and district-wise details of release of funds are not maintained at Central level. For the State of Uttaranchal ARWSP allocation during 2006-07 is Rs. 6707 lacs out of which Rs. 3353.50 lacs has been released as first instalment. The State is yet to submit its proposal for second instalment.

(c) and (d) Since the State Governments are empowered to plan, implement and utilize the ARWSP funds for various schemes at their level through the State Level Sanctioning Committee, scheme-wise details/ records for ARWSP are not maintained at Central level.
